

Dossier

Name	Jack Oriel "Brass" Brady
Age	36
Police record	Assaults, Batteries, Petty theft, Loitering Gambling, Mopery, Public Drunkenness, Murder (Acquitted)
Military and public service	Marine Sergeant, served in China, and on the Western Front in France. Earned the Bronze star and other commendations.
Education	Unknown

Notes

Rumoured to have been a mercenary in Turkey after the Great War. May speak Turkish, Arabic, several Chinese dialects.

Throttled opponent to death in Oilfield, California before onlookers could pull him off.

The murder piqued the interest of Roger Carlyle, who had just been expelled from USC.

After an hour-long interview, the two forged an intimate alliance. Carlyle paid for Brady's legal defence and he was acquitted after the legal team dismantled the testimony of seven eye-witnesses.

Following the acquittal, Brady worked as Carlyle's bodyguard and spokesman.

Acted as foreman and manager for the expedition.

Nickname is derived from the brass plate he carries over his heart.

Dossier

Name	Roger Carlyle
Age	24
Police record	None
Military and public service	None
Education	Groton Boarding school class of 19xx, also Attended Harvard, Yale, Princeton, Miskatonic, Cornell, and USC, though did not attain a degree from any.

Notes

Evaded paternity suit at 17

Underwent short treatments for alcoholism at 18 and 20.

Parents died in an automobile crash in 19xx.

Gave up control of family finances to sister, Erica.

Seen with East African woman, Nichonka Bunay, self styled poetess.

Withdrew from public life in the months before the expedition.

Dossier

Name	Dr. Robert Ellington Huston
Age	56
Police record	None
Military and public service	None
Education	Graduated with honors from Johns Hopkins

Notes

Maintained a circulatory ailments practice for three years following his graduation before traveling to Vienna to study first under Freud, and then under Jung.

Returned to New York City in 19xx and established a practice in psychoanalysis.

Practice was very lucrative, charging $40-50 a session.

Treated Roger Carlyle after Miss Imelda Bosch, a woman he had just ended an affair with, committed suicide.

Dossier

Name	Miss Hypatia Celestine Masters
Age	27
Police record	None
Military and public service	None
Education	Attended Swiss & French academies, showed facilities for languages.

Notes

Heiress to Masters armaments fortune [see Masters of Corruption by Nikolai Steinberg]

Talented photographer. Several of her shows earned strong reviews.

Engaged in an affair with Raoul Luis Maria Pinera at the city college of New York.

Dated Roger Carlyle at several times, though only as a friend.

Dossier

Name	Visct. Pevensey, Sir Aubrey Penhew
Age	55
Police record	Caught stealing a policeman's helmet, 1898
Military and public service	Lieutenant with Yorkshire guards, 1902-1902 Brevetted as Colonel in British army intelligence 1915-1916 (ret. Due to injury)
Education	Graduated Oxford with honors (Studied classics)

Notes

Spend several years following his graduation in Egypt, surveying and performing exploratory excavations, to the first cataract and beyond.

Responsible for founding several important branches of Egyptology and for several important discoveries, particularly at Dhashur.

Founded the Penhew foundation, which has underwritten many important researches at home and abroad, is responsible for the education of brilliant but otherwise destitute scholars.

Holds titles to homes, mansions, in London, the Cotswolds, Monaco, Alexandria, Paris, Rome and Athens.

Family history is long and prestigious, stretching back to the time of Willian the Conquerer. Only marred by the beheading of one Sir Blaize, for treason and black magic.